		Pump in alarm. Red light.Arrived on site to find panel in alarm. And panel board was reading run dry performed meter readings and all readings were good but amps. Switches were reading opened. I pulled pump and saw that pump was form 04/2013 and I went to upper Prov shed to grab customer new core DH00955901 before installing pump I went to panel to meg cables and all readings were good installed pump and was able to run pump into both cycles and everything checked out good.
